IOSH Managing Safely in Airports and Aviation

Astutis.

Introduction

Managing Safely in Airports and Aviation provides an excellent understanding of airside and landside health and safety management issues for people working in the highly regulated and dynamic Airport environment. Training employees with this unique, sector-specific, IOSH approved certificate course, assists employers in meeting their health and safety objectives to control hazards, reduce incidents and achieve compliance with CAP642 and UK HSE legislative requirements.

Course Key Facts

Duration: Four days

Learning Methods
Virtual and In-company

The IOSH Managing Safely in Airports and Aviation course has a comprehensive syllabus designed to provide learners with the complete toolset to date.

There are seven topics that offer learners a professional understanding in managing safely whilst in the air. The topics are;

1: Introducing Managing Safely in Airports and Aviation
2: Assessing Risks
3: Controlling Risks
4: Understanding Responsibilities
5: Understanding Hazards
6: Investigating Incidents
7: Measuring Performance
8: Human Factors

Assessment
There is a 45-minute multiple-choice test at the end of the course and a workplace health and safety risk assessment, which must be completed within two weeks to pass.

Who is the course for?

This course is suitable for staff in line management or supervisory roles working for companies involved in airside and landside airport operations.

Benefits for Learners

The course provides learners with a comprehensive understanding on a number of essential areas. The course will offer learners:

▶ Introduction to Managing Safely in Airports and Aviation.

▶ Professional education in health and safety responsibilities and accountability in Airport environment.

▶ Understanding how to assess and control hazards and risks effectively common to airside and landside operations.

▶ Walkthrough guide on how to conduct an accident and incident investigation.

▶ Understanding on how to judge health and safety performance.

▶ Understanding of what human factors are and how human failure contributes to the cause of accidents.

Benefits for Employers

The IOSH Managing Safely in Airports and Aviation not only benefits individual learners but also helps employers in the following ways:

▶ Employers can be assured that managers and supervisors remain vigilant and are equipped with the right level of information to support the day-to-day management of health and safety in airport operations.

▶ It assists employers in complying with the requirements of CAP642 and UK HSE legislative requirements and provides a clear understanding of the interface between HSE and CAA requirements.

Benefits of Classroom or Virtual Classroom Learning

▶ Choice of convenient and suitable training solutions developed to suit your needs.

▶ Training that is customised to the airport environment, so it is relevant and effective for your workforce.

▶ Reassurance that your workforce will be well equipped to improve the safety culture positively.

▶ Comprehensive physical course notes and study materials.

▶ Dedicated tutor support included from experienced CMIOSH member.

▶ Ongoing support and advice for the duration of your course.

▶ Practical application of the course syllabus.

▶ Multimedia-rich material to suit all learning styles and preferences.

▶ Focused preparation on the workplace assessment and end of course test

▶ Interactive group discussions and collaborative study on typical scenarios.