NEBOSH Diploma Distance Learning

Develop your career to the highest level in health and safety

At Astutis We Help Transform Careers

Demanded more and more by organisations worldwide, the NEBOSH National Diploma is regarded as the flagship qualification for all aspiring health and safety professionals.

For flexible learning that can be carried out at your own pace, Astutis offers the NEBOSH Diploma Distance Learning Course. All course notes are provided for you in full-colour PDF format, and once initially downloaded can be studied offline. You will also have access to the same tutor support, discussion forums and FREE revision webinars offered with our online versions.

All of our course tutors are Chartered Health and Safety Practitioners themselves, with significant management experience in industry. This makes them well placed to guide you through your course, however and whenever you need it. You can therefore be confident of retaining and applying your knowledge and progressing into a senior health and safety role.

The Market Leading HSE Training Provider

All of Astutis' materials for this distance learning course are designed, developed and maintained in house meaning you can be sure of quality up-to-date materials. Learners often tell us that these notes later make a valuable resource for their day to day work.

You will be fully supported during your course by our team of CMIOSH tutors and NEBOSH examiners. This means you can ask for support whenever you need it, taking away the apprehension that sometimes comes with self study.

Choosing Astutis to provide you NEBOSH Diploma learning experience means that you can be sure of the highest quality. We are proud to have provided 'Best Diploma Candidate' at three of the last four NEBOSH graduation ceremonies.
